We place a lot of importance on some pretty basic values that you need to be aware of:

- Attitude: A positive, friendly attitude is a must in working with our customers.
- Hospitality: We want only those people working for us who can provide our guests with gracious, incomparable service.
- Honesty: It's always the best policy and we expect you to keep Vero Amore best interest at heart.
- Quality: We sell and service only quality products that you will be proud to represent.
- Service: We insist on providing fast, exceptional, friendly service to everyone.
- Cleanliness: We require a clean establishment beginning with the entrance to our business and extending through the retail area, dining room, kitchen and restrooms.

We've got high standards. Are you willing to:

- Pitch in with the teamwork to get a job done?
- Work shifts when some of your friends are out socializing?
- Abide by our hair cut, dress code and personal grooming rules?
- Wear shoes that comply with our safety standards and uniform guidelines?
- Do hard physical work, including plenty of cleaning?
- Show up consistently on time so we can count on you?

We know our people learn a lot from working in the hospitality industry. For example:

- Customer service skills: Something that is needed in any job and you will use for the rest of your life.
- Social skills: How to handle any situation graciously and become a valued member of our team.
- Technical skills: Through our extensive training programs.
- Business knowledge: As you observe and participate in the American free enterprise system at work.
- Organizing and planning: No two days are alike in the restaurant business...you learn to become organized and plan efficient use of your time
- Responsibility: By adhering to our high standards you will have the opportunity to grow with our company.
